YOUTH PARTICIPANT AND PARENT Behavior Understanding:

In asking to participate I understand that I am attending as part of my faith community and will be a good representative. This includes respect for all chaperones, adults, employees and fellow youth participants. I will speak in a manner, which is not offensive or abusive to others. My actions will also respect others as well as the facility where the event will be held. I will also respect my body and myself by not using/possessing any illegal (for my age) substance.

The purpose of the social is to grow in our relationships with other as well as to have FUN! To do my part to help make this happen I will cooperate with the event coordinators and participate in the planned events. Although I don't foresee any problems, if I should have a situation that violates one of these understandings, I agree that the event coordinators will contact my parents and I will be set home. Further consequences may occur depending on the situation.
